

UNDERSTANDING PEOPLE

Course Description

To truly understand working with people we must combine the rigorous formal study of developmental issues with our own observations and thorough study of Scripture. This course helps the Bible teacher enhance ministry effectiveness. An appreciation for the intricacies of growth and development positively influence every person we contact.